

1

2 Figure 4. The average proportion of red eyed offspring produced by flies from parental and

3 hybrid crosses, in competition with brown eyed competitors. Average proportions were

4 determined for each replicate population and plotted. The dashed line indicates the expected

5 proportion of  $\frac{1}{5}$  of the offspring. Letters indicate significant differences between cross identities.